BRINKERHOFF'S

Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner.

THE undersigned would inform the Agricultural public that he has purchased from the Patentee of this extraordinary machine, the Patent Right for the States of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Brinkerhoff's Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner, is pronounced the best machine of the kind in this country. And in proof, it may be mentioned that the "Advisory Committee appointed to select Implements for exhibition at the Universal Exposition in Paris, in 1867, have selected this Sheller as the best in America," and at the request of J. C. Derby, U. S. Agent, a machine has been shipped to Paris for exhibition.

The fact may also be stated that at the great trial of Agricultural Implements, at Auburn, N. Y., in July last, under the auspices of the New York State Agricultural Society, the Brinkerhoff Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner was reported by one of the most competent Committees as the best Corn Sheller out. They say, "We have carefully examined and thoroughly tested this machine, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best Corn Sheller we ever saw." The report is signed by such men as John Stanton Gould, President N. Y. State Agricultural Society, B. P. Johnson, Secretary to same; Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Tribune; S. Edwards Todd, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Times.

From among many complimentary newspaper notices, the following, from the New York Observer, is deemed sufficient:

"Among all the Hand Corn Shellers made in New York and Albany—and one single firm manufactures more than 10,000 annually—not one can enter the circle with the Sheller just invented by J. Brinkerhoff, Auburn, New York. It shells, separates and cleans, rapidly and easily, at one operation, as fast as the ears can be put into the hopper."

The undersigned is now prepared to dispose of COUNTY RIGHTS. He will have SHELLERS ready for sale in the course of a month's time.

There is a large Log DWELLING HOUSE, Barn, Meat House and Dairy on the farm, and a well of excellent water in the yard. This well affords plenty of good water the dryest season. There is plenty of timber on the farm for the use of the same. The land is good, and produces good crops of Wheat, Corn Oats, Hay &c. There is a fine Orchard, in full bearing. The land is easy to improve, and takes clover finely. The fencing is in good order. (A good many families of Northern people have settled in the neighborhood.)

Can give full possession 25th December, 1867, provided it is sold previous to renting for another year. For want of money, the owners offer this farm at the low price of thirty dollars per acre, cash paid down. A good deed given when the terms are complied with.

JONES' MILL FOR SALE.

THIS is a large FRAME MILL on the Turnpike, 8 miles below Leesburg, in London county, Va. The works in the Mill are in pretty good repair, as a Saw and Grist Mill. There is a Miller's house and 8 acres of land with the Mill. The mill race is not over three hundred yards long from the dam to the mill; would take but little expense to make it a very valuable property, as there is no mill for 5 miles. The other mills were all burned during the war.

This mill would be sold very cheap for cash. Apply to MARY A. JONES.

TWO LITTLE PAIRS OF BOOTS.

Two little pairs of boots to-night
  Before the fire are drying;
Two little pairs of tired feet
  In the trundle-bed are lying;
The track they leave upon the floor
  Makes me feel much like sighing.

Those little boots with copper toes,
  They run the livelong day,
And often times I almost wish
  That they were miles away;
So tired I am to hear so oft
  Their heavy tramp at play.

They walk about the new plow'd ground
  Where mud in plenty lies;
They roll it up in marbles round,
  And bake it into pies;
And then at night upon the floor
  In every shape it dries.

To-day I was disposed to scold;
  But when I look to-night
At those small boots before the fire,
  With copper toes so bright,
I think how sad my heart would be,
  To put them out of sight.

For in a trunk up-stairs I've laid
  Two socks of white and blue;
If called to put those boots away,
  O God! what should I do?
I mourn that there are not to-night
  Three pairs instead of two.

I mourn, because I thought how nice
  My neighbor "'cross the way"
Could keep her carpets all the year
  From getting worn and gray;
Yet well I knew she'd smile to own
  Some little boys to-day!

We mothers weary get and worn
  Over our load of care;
But how we speak of those dear ones,
  Let each of us beware;
What would our firesides be to-night
  If no small boots were there?

SIX LOVE LETTERS.

"Are there any more of these letters?"

When her father asked this question, in an awful tone, Lucilla Richmond could not say "no," and dared not say "yes," but as an intermediate course burst into tears, and sobbed behind her handkerchief.

"Bring them to me, Lucilla," said her father, as if she had answered him, as, indeed, she had; and the girl, trembling and weeping, arose to obey him.

Then Mrs. Richmond, her daughter's very self grown older, came behind her husband's chair and patted him on the shoulder.

"Please don't be hard with her, my dear," she said, coaxingly. "He's a nice young man, and it is our fault, after all, as much as her's, and you won't break her young heart, I'm sure."

"Perhaps you approve of the whole affair, ma'am," said Mr. Richmond.

"I—no—that is, I only"—gasped the little woman; and, hearing Lucilla coming, she sank into a chair, blaming herself dreadfully for not having been present at all her daughter's music lessons during the past year.

For all this disturbance arose from a music teacher who had given lessons to Miss Lucilla for twelve months, and who had taken the liberty of falling in love with her, knowing well that she was the daughter of one of the richest men in Yorkshire.

"It was inexcusable in a poor music teacher, who should have known his place," Mr. Richmond declared, and he clutched the little perfumed billet which had fallen into his hands as he might a scorpion, and waited for the others with a look upon his face which told of no softening. They came at last—six little white envelopes, tied together with blue ribbon, and were laid at his elbow by his despairing daughter.

"Lock these up until I return home this evening," he said to his wife; "I will read them then. Meanwhile, Lucilla is not to see this music master on any pretence."

And then Miss Lucilla went down upon her knees:

"Oh, dear papa!" she cried, "dearest papa, please don't say that I must never see him again, I couldn't bear it. Indeed, I could not. He's poor, I know, but he is a gentleman, and I—I like him so much, papa."

"No more of this absurdity, my dear," said Mr. Richmond. "He has been artful enough to make you think him perfection, I suppose. Your parents know what is best for your happiness. A music teacher is not a match for Miss Richmond."

With which remark, Mr. Richmond put on his hat and overcoat and, departed.

Then Lucilla and her mother took the opportunity of falling into each other's arms.

"It is so naughty of you," said Mrs. Richmond. "But, oh dear, I can't blame you. It was exactly so with me. I ran away with your papa, you know, and my parents objected because of his poverty. I feel the greatest sympathy for you; and Frederick has such fine eyes, and is so pleasing, I wish I could soften your papa."

"When he has seen the letters there'll be no hope, I'm very much afraid," sobbed Miss Lucilla. "Fred is so romantic, and papa hates romance."

"He used to be romantic himself in old times," said Mrs. Richmond. "Such letters as he wrote me. I have them in my desk yet. He said he would die if I refused him."

"So does Fred," said Lucilla.

"And that life would be worthless without me; and about my being beautiful (he thought so, you know.) I'm sure he ought to sympathize a little," said Mrs. Richmond.

But she dared not promise he would.

She coaxed her darling to stop crying, and made her lie down; then went up into her own room to put the letters into her desk; and as she placed them in one pigeon-hole, she saw in another a bundle tied exactly as those were, and drew them out.

These letters were to Lucilla also. One who had received them twenty years before, and she was now a matron old enough to have a daughter who had heart troubles—unfolded them one by one, wondering how it came to pass that lovers' letters were all so much alike.

Half a dozen—just the same in number, and much more romantic than those the music master had written to her daughter Lucilla. A strange idea came into Mrs. Richmond's mind. She dared not oppose her husband, by a look or a word; she had never attempted such a thing.

But she was very fond of her daughter. When she left the desk she looked guilty and frightened, and something in her pocket rustled as she moved. But she said nothing to any one on the subject until the dinner hour had arrived, and with it came her husband, angrier and more determined than ever. The meal was passed in silence; then having adjourned to the parlor, Mr. Richmond seated himself in a great arm-chair, and demanded:

"The letters," in a voice of thunder.

Mrs. Richmond put her hand into her pocket, and pulled it out again with a frightened look.

Mr. Richmond again repeated, still more sternly:

"Those absurd letters, if you please, my dear ma'am."

And then the little woman faltered:

"I—that is—I believe—yes, dear—I believe I have them," and gave him a white pile of envelopes, encircled with blue ribbon, with a hand that trembled like an aspen leaf.

As for Lucilla, she began to weep as though the end of all things had come at last, and felt sure that if papa should prove cruel she would die.

"Six letters—six shameful pieces of deception, Lucilla," said the indignant parent. "I am shocked that a child of mine could practice such duplicity.—Hem! let me see. Number one, I believe. June, this is December. Half a year you have deceived us, then, Lucilla. Let me see—ah! 'From the first moment he adored you,' eh? Nonsense. People don't fall in love in that absurd manner. It takes years of acquaintance and respect and attachment. 'With your smiles for his goal, he would win both fame and fortune, poor as he is!' Fiddlesticks, Lucilla! A man who has common sense would always wait until he had a fair commencement before he proposed to any girl. 'Praise of your beauty. The loveliest creature he ever saw!' Exaggeration, my dear. You are not plain, but such flattery is absurd.—'Must hear from you or die!' Dear, dear —how absurd!"

And Mr. Richmond dropped the first letter, and took up another.

"The same stuff," he commented. "I hope you don't believe a word he says.—A plain, earnest, upright sort of a man would never go into such rhapsodies, I am sure. Ah! now. In number three, he calls you an 'angel!' He is romantic, upon my word. And what is all this?"

"Those who would forbid me to see you can find no fault with me but my poverty. I am honest—I am earnest in my efforts. I am by birth a gentleman, and I love you from my soul. Do not let them sell you for gold, Lucilla."

"Great heavens, what impertinence to your parents!"

"I don't remember Fred's saying anything of that kind," said poor little Lucilla. "He never knew you would object."

Mr. Richmond shook his head, frowned and read on in silence until the last sheet lay under his hand. Then, with an ejaculation of rage, he started to his feet.

"Infamous," he cried; "I'll go to him this instant—I'll horsewhip him!—I'll—murder him! As for you, by Jove, I'll send you to a convent. Elope—elope with a music teacher! I'm ashamed to call you my daughter. Where's my hat? Give me my boots. Here, John, call a cab—I—"

But here Lucilla caught one arm and Mrs. Richmond the other.

"Oh, papa, are you crazy?" said Lucilla. "Frederick never proposed such a thing. Let me see the letter. Oh, papa, this is not Fred's—upon my word, it is not. Do look, papa; it is dated twenty years back, and Frederick's name is not Charles! Papa, these are your love letters to mamma, written long ago. Her name is Lucilla, you know!"

Mr. Richmond sat down in his arm-chair in silence, very red in the face.

"How did this occur?" he said, sternly; and little Mrs. Richmond, retreating into a corner with her handkerchief to her eyes, sobbed:

"I did it on purpose!" and paused, as though she expected a sudden judgment. But hearing nothing, she dared at last to rise and creep up to her husband timidly.

"You know, Charles," she said, "it's so long since, and I thought you might not exactly remember—how you fell in love with me at first sight, how papa and mamma objected, and how at last we ran away together; and it seemed to me that if we could bring it all back plainly to you as it was then, we might let dear Lucilla marry the man she likes, who is good, if he is not rich. I did not need it to be brought back any plainer, myself—women have more time to remember, you know. And we have been very happy—have we not?"

And certainly Mr. Richmond could not deny that. So Lucilla, feeling that her interests might safely be left in her mother's keeping, slipped out of the room, and heard the result of the little ruse next morning. It was favorable to the young music teacher, who had really only been sentimental, and had not gone half so far as an elopement; and, in due course of time, the two were married, with all the pomp and grandeur befitting the nuptials of a wealthy merchant's daughter, with the perfect approbation of Lucilla's father, and to the great joy of Lucilla's mamma, who justly believed that her little ruse had brought about all her daughter's happiness.

A LITTLE fellow some four or five years old, and who had never seen a negro, was perplexed one day, when one came by where he and his father were. The youngster eyed the stranger suspiciously till he had passed, and then asked his father:

"Pa, who painted that man all black so?"

"God did, my son," replied the father.

"Well," said the little one, still looking after the negro, "I shouldn't 'a though he'd 'a held still."

LIGHTLY DRESSED.—A Quaker gentleman, riding in a carriage with a fashionable lady decked with a profusion of jewelry, heard her complain of the cold. Shivering in her lace bonnet and shawl, as light as cobweb, she exclaimed: "What shall I do to get warm?" "I really don't know," replied the Quaker, solemnly, "unless thee should put on another breast-pin."

"MY dear Horatio, I had a very mysterious dream about you." "What was it, dear?" I dreamed I saw you carried up to heaven in a golden chariot, surrounded by angels clothed in white and purple. What is that a sign of, dear?" "It is a sign of a foul stomach, my dear."

A YOUNG lady went out with a rather timid beau sleighing one evening, complacently remarking to him that she seldom went sleighing but that she got chaps on the lips. The young man took the hint and chapped.

WHEN an Irish woman applied for relief at Portland, the committee asked: "How many children have you?" "Six, yer honor!" "How old is the youngest?" "Me youngest is dead, yer honor; but I've had another since!"

DENOMINATIONS AND DOGMAS.—The Regristrar General of England has published an official list of the various Protestant denominations in England, making them in number ninety-one, to which the Bishop of Argyle, in Scotland, has added a list of Scotch churches not represented in England, raising the whole number in the British isles to one hundred. This Bishop, who is said to be one of the ablest and most thoughtful of the Scotch Bishops, argues that the divisions in Britain has arisen from dogmatic definitions, and acting on the postulate that no Christian unity can exist among those who do not have precisely the same ideas on religious doctrine, he concludes that community of dogma is impracticable, but maintains that the words "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples if ye bear love one unto another" indicates a bond strong and wide enough to hold Christendom together, although he confesses that all "the errors of later times" may be let in upon this platform, but thinks that exclusiveness perpetuates rather than reduces error. It is suggested by a cotemporary that some people will say that here is another dogma to build an additional denomination upon, while others will find in the suggestion food for profitable reflection.

CONFIDENCE.—A young man once asked a city merchant to sell him some goods on short credit. His recommendations were very favorable, but the times were uncertain, many were failing, and the credit was refused. As he was slowly leaving the store, greatly depressed at the disappointment, he stooped to pick up a pin, and carefully stuck it in his coat collar. The merchant noticed it, called him back, and told him he could have what he wanted, "for I see you are careful and economical of small things—such men can be safely trusted." A young man purchased a bundle of goods from Stephen Girard; as he was about to shoulder them at the door Mr. G. said to him, "Why don't you call that dray?" "Oh," said the youth, "I can carry it home myself and save the cartage." Mr. G. was so well pleased with the reply, that he took the youth into his confidence and befriended him as long as he lived.

NO DEFORMITY IN HEAVEN.—Dr. Holland has the following reflections on seeing a little lame boy who was singing a cheerful song: "It is pleasant to say to him and all the brotherhood of ugliness and lameness, that there is every reason to believe that there are no such things in heaven as one-legged or club-footed souls—no such thing as an ugly or misshaped soul—no such thing as a blind or deaf soul—no such thing as a soul with tainted blood in its veins; and out of these imperfect bodies will spring spirits of consummate perfection and angelic beauty—a beauty chastened and enriched by the humiliations that were visited upon the earthly habitations."

REPENTANCE.—Nothing is more misunderstood than the nature of repentance. Too many imagine it is merely to cry for mercy; or, at most, only to be sorry for what is past. But true repentance is a thorough change of mind, which always produces a corresponding change of conduct.

THE young lady who rises early, rolls up her sleeves, and walks into the kitchen to get breakfast or assists in doing so, and afterwards, with cheerfulness and sunny smiles, puts the house in order, with the assistance of her mother, is worth a thousand parlor beauties, who, from the want of exercise, complain of ennui, and lounge in luxuriant ease. The former will make a good wife, and render home a paradise; the latter is a useless piece of furniture, and will, to the annoyance of her household, go whining to her grave. Let her go.

MORTAR AND HASH.—"What do you call this?" said Mr. Jones Smith, gently tapping his breakfast with his fork.—"Call it?" snarled the landlady, "what do you call it?" "Well, really," said Smith, "I don't know. There is not hair enough in it for mortar, but there is entirely too much if it is intended for hash!"

THERE are some men too selfish to deny themselves, even to give pleasure to their children. Such a man was old David F——. One day he sat down to a roast turkey, which he attacked vigorously, without leaving a morsel for his family. When he was picking the last bone, the hungry children began to cry for it; upon which he threw it at them, exclaiming in the tone of a martyr:

"Go, take it! and let your father starve."

A PRECIOUS specimen of young America got lost at a country fair in New Jersey, and went bawling around, much to the annoyance of some quiet people, who inquired the cause of his grief. He answered, with suppressed sobs, "I want my mammy; that's what's the matter. I told the darned thing she'd lose me."

IT is related that in Virginia City, Nevada, a poor widow, examining an old vest of her deceased husband's found a dirty paper in the pocket, which, on examination, proved to be the deed of three feet of a valuable mining claim. The Secretary of the Company informed her that it was genuine, and that $1,800 in dividends was due on it. She took the money, sold the dirty paper for $14,000, and went to her home and friends in the East.

"I RESORT to wine to stimulate my wits," said a young spendthrift to an old one. "Ah," replied the veteran, "that is the way I began, but now I have to resort to my wits to get my wine."

THE Portsmouth (N. H.) Union, a Democratic newspaper which was mobbed and damaged by a "loyal" mob, in 1863, has just been awarded $1,000 by a jury composed of eight Republicans and four Democrats. Daniel H. Spinney, the leader of the mob, has to furnish the "stamps" and pay the costs.

THE people of the Southern States are recommended to turn their attention to the culture of the olive. This tree, it is said, will thrive anywhere from the northern boundary of Virginia to the Gulf of Mexico.

WE know a fond mother who is so exercised between love and duty, that she gives her boy chloroform before spanking him.

IN Chicago, a few days since, all the children in one family were married to all the children in another.

A Rad Met on His Own Ground and Defeated.

Not long since two men traveling, companions, one a white and the other a black Rad, called at a very neat farm house for accommodations for the night, viz: supper and lodgings. And finding genuine hospitality, the good hostess was not long in preparing supper while her husband cared for the horses of the guests. Supper being announced, they found each provided with a separate table.

The white brother finished his meal first, and without waiting for his sable friend, returned at once to the sitting room, and demanded of the landlord a reason for having two separate tables when only he and his colored friend were to eat. The good man replied that in all matters of that sort his wife had always followed her own views and that he never interfered with her arrangements.

The wife chanced to hear all this, and more of the same sort. So to herself she said, we'll see what we will see.

The hour of retirement at last arrived, and the wife directed the guests to be escorted to a certian room up stairs. When the room was entered, judge of Mr. White rad's surprise to find but one bed, and he demanded a reason for this. The farmer said that in all matters of that kind his wife had always followed her own views and he never interfered with her arrangements.

The rad scratched his head and balanced himself first on one foot and then on the other, while Sambo showed his ivory at length, and with a sneeze and cough, declined that part of the accommodation, but requested their horses to be brought forward and the privilege of leaving, all of which was freely granted.

MODEL PULPIT POLITICIANS.—Political preachers are coming out in their true colors, all over the country. Two more illustrations are added to the many instances in which loyal pulpit demagogues have been detected in "wearing the livery of heaven to serve the devil." Rev. Wm. Smith, of Monroeville, Ohio, seduced his sister-in-law, when thirteen years of ago, and continued his illicit intercourse with her for six years, during all of which time he preached Radicalism and denounced Democrats for all manner of wickedness. Before his crime became known, he induced his brother-in-law, by his first wife, to marry the girl, but the duped man soon made the facts known, and the Reverend gentleman is in trouble. Another of the "loyal" hypocrites, Rev. Edward Dunbar, has been arrested for bigamy in Minneapolis, Minnesota, but his "loyal" friends will no doubt manage to secure his release. Such are the men whose teachings have for years blinded the eyes of thousands of our people, and made them think that obedience to their negro-loving leaders was obedience to God.

THE FAMINE IN SWEDEN.—A London banking house has opened a subscription for the relief of the peasants of North-eastern Sweden. The harvests of that district have failed for seven successive years. An early frost this year has completely ruined the corn crop. In consequence, a population of seventy thousand is left without any provision against the long winter of the high latitudes.—Already bread can hardly be bought, and the peasants in many places are eking out life with roots and the bark of trees.

SIX hundred houses, including many valuable warehouses, were blown down at Matamoras by the recent tornado on the Rio Grande. Five million dollars would not more than cover the losses. For thirty miles around all the ranches were thrown down. At the mouth of the river and at Brownsville the destruction was equally great. Not more than twenty persons were killed, however, and forty or fifty wounded. Much suffering prevails.

THE Radicals admit that the cost of voting the negroes in the South will not be less than $75,000,000 for the present year. Let the workingmen of the North think of that. Every dollar of it is wrung from their toil. $75,000,000 a year to keep ten States impoverished and subject to negro rule. How do you like it, fellow working men.

IN calculating the chances for the next Presidential election, the Tribune says, "We do not think much comfort remains for any political party that cannot carry New York and Pennsylvania."

Very true. What hope is there then, for the Radicals? Their Congressional policy of Reconstruction and negro suffrage has been repudiated not only in New York and Pennsylvania, but in nearly every other State. The people have only commenced the work of renovation. Next fall it will be completed.

RADICAL organs are trying to make it appear that the black race is not decreasing, but, on the contrary, increasing more rapidly than the white race. So much the worse, then, for the whites. If put in position to rule the whites whilst only a minority, what will the darkies do when their numbers become equal to or greater than those of the white race?

GEN. GRANT is so persistently dogged by Radical politicians, who seek every place and pretext to entrap him into some unguarded admission or expression in favor of their sinking party, that he has declared his utter contempt for the pack. They have disgusted him into such a state of mind that he is in next to a spell of sickness.

ALL that a Richmond negro has to do to secure a good berth at loafing, with plenty to eat, drink and wear, and pocket-money to spend, is to swear that he was discharged from work for voting the Radical ticket. Scores of lazy, thieving darkies have been detected plying that vocation with success.

THE cost of running this Government under Radical disunion rule, is about eight hundred millions of dollars per year, and that in a time of profound peace. When a Democratic administration spent eighty millions a year, the party now in power howled about extravagance, and wanted the country brought back to the days of the fathers of the Republic.

THE New York Commercial Advertiser, (Radical,) says the Republicans are reconciled to their defeat, because there was "a pervading sentiment among us, not only that we should be beaten, but that we needed chastisement." We agree with this perfectly; but the "sentiment" was not by any means confined to the beaten party.

TREASON.—Senator Rogers has offered resolutions in the Tennessee Senate in favor of paying the bonds with greenbacks. He is one of the oldest Radicals in that body.

CORRUPTION, defalcations, and peculations, on the part of the Radical party, are assigned by the Tribune as among the causes of the defeat in New York.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 29, 1867.

CONGRESS—IMPEACHMENT.

Congress re-assembled yesterday week, pursuant to adjournment. Nothing of importance transpired until Monday, when the majority and minority reports on the proposed impeachment of President Johnson were presented. Quite a sensation resulted. The following from Washington, under date of Monday evening, will be perused with interest by our readers:

THE IMPEACHMENT QUESTION.

The inauguration of the impeachment movement in the House to-day attracted a large crowd of visitors to the galleries, and the excitement extending to the Senate, that body adjourned after a very brief session, nearly all the Senators present repairing to the Hall of Representatives, to witness the opening of the great impeachment ball. It was hinted last week that a change of views had taken place in the Judiciary Committee on the question, and that Mr. Churchill, of New York, had gone over to the impeachers. This story was so generally credited that numbers on both sides were prepared for just such a report as was presented. Nevertheless, the rumor was flatly contradicted at the Capitol this morning, and it was not positively known outside what would be the character of the report until Mr. Boutwell (at 2.40 P. M.,) rose, and submitted it as the views of the majority of the committee. The excitement at this point was intense. The demand for the reading of the document, however, had the effect of diminishing the crowd somewhat, besides giving evidence that no immediate action would be taken, which turned out to be true, for after a portion of the report had been read, it was agreed to have it printed, and the whole subject postponed until Wednesday, the fourth of December. The very able report of the minority of the committee in opposition to the impeachment scheme was presented by Mr. Wilson, and ordered to be printed. There was a great scramble for printed copies of the evidence, only a limited number of which were ready for distribution. The probable action of the House on the exciting question now before them is actively discussed. The impeachers, led by Boutwell, of Massachusetts, and Williams, of your State, claim that they, have a majority of all the members on their side.—Ashley is remarkably quiet, and seems rather indifferent to the result. Wilson, of Iowa, and Bingham, of Ohio, are marshaling their forces on the Republican side, and hope, with the aid of the Democratic vote, to be able to kill the proposition as soon as it shall come up.—So far as can be ascertained there is very little disposition on the part of the Senate Republicans to have the matter sent to them, but the House impeachers are straining every nerve to throw the issue into their hands. The action of the committee was communicated to the President early this afternoon, but it had been anticipated at the White House.

THE CHANGE IN THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

Mr. Churchill, whose change of views in the Judiciary Committee on the impeachment question enabled the impeachers to present the majority report, is a new Radical member from the Livingston District of New York. He was strongly opposed to impeachment until Wednesday last, when he suddenly espoused the cause of Boutwell and Williams, and promised to subscribe to their report. There are many strange stories afloat as to how he became converted to the impeachment side, and the probability is that in due time some further light may be thrown on the subject.

MINORITY REPORTS.

Messrs. Wilson and Woodbridge presented a minority report, dissenting from the conclusions of the majority. They affirm that not a particle of the evidence before the committee would be received in a court of justice, and condemn in strong language, the spirit and temper of the majority report. They declare that, politically, they condemn President Johnson, but that the day of political impeachments would be a sad one for this country; that political offences must be tried at the ballot-box They therefore decide that the testimony before the committee does not warrant the charge against the President of high crimes and misdemeanors.

Messrs. Marshall and Eldridge presented another minority report, dissenting from the majority, and from the report of Messrs. Wilson and Woodbridge. The subject of impeachment is discussed most ably and thoroughly. While they coincide with Wilson and Woodbridge in their argument on the law of impeachment, they differ in many important points. They review the evidence offered before the committee, and show how utterly destitute of foundation is the clamor raised against President Johnson.

—That the impeachment of the President would greatly disturb the peace and injure the prosperity of the country, does not admit of reasonable doubt. Will the Radical leaders further provoke the people? If they do, they will in the end suffer more than President Johnson.

CONGRESS ON TUESDAY.—Nothing of importance was done in the Senate. The House adopted a resolution directing the committee of ways and means to inquire into the expediency of equalizing taxation, as follows: by imposing a tax of one per cent. on United States bonds, to be collected by the officers of the internal revenue, and to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to issue bonds subject to State and municipal taxation, and not to congressional taxation, and exchangeable for any bonds now outstanding; also providing that the tax on the issues of the national banks (except such amounts as are required to be paid to the treasury to secure bonds) shall be paid to the treasurers of the States in which the said banks are located, to be applied to the liquidation of the debts of such States.—A resolution was offered by Mr. Ross, of Illinois, directing the committee on banking and currency to report a bill at an early day to provide for the withdrawal of national bank currency in circulation and supply their place with greenbacks. A motion to lay on the table was defeated—yeas 51, nays 101—and the resolution was subsequently referred to the committee on banking and currency. The committee of ways and means was directed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law against any contraction of the interest bearing notes of the United States, and also for the effectual and speedy redemption thereof. In committee of the whole Mr. Blaine, of Maine, made a speech on the finances, favoring the payment of the national indebtedness in gold, particularly the 5-20s. General Butler replied, in opposition, after which an adjournment took place.

AN exchange says the Alabama convention intends to pardon and enfranchise all mean whites who voted or will hereafter vote the nigger ticket. White men pardoned by niggers! That's heavy!

RADICAL PRESSURE.

Even the Press is obliged to acknowledge that business prospects in this State are by no means rose colored. It says, "from Pittsburg we learn by private advices that the commercial lookout in that section of the State is not encouraging. Business, in fact, is coming rapidly to a stand-still. No ploughs are sent down to the South and West; the glass works are almost all out of blast.—It will be from all appearances a hard winter, with nothing but wants in abundance. The pressure of hard times will be felt more severely this season than usual, coming on the heels of the prolonged and extensive strikes of the summer." What are the Radical party doing, asks the Age, to prevent the pressure of hard times upon the people of the North? Are they endeavoring to make the South productive, to increase the trade of that section? Are they speaking words of encouragement to the white men of that portion of the nation? If a farmer leaves one-half of his ground unproductive, he cannot expect to prosper; if a merchant act upon the same principle with reference to his capital, he will end his career in the bankrupt court.—And how can the people of Pittsburg or any other locality expect to thrive as of old, when ten States are destroyed, and idle, indolent, thriftless negroes about to take possession of nearly one-half of the country? They will not need ploughs, nor glassware, nor any one of the hundred articles which enter into the industrial pursuits of the Northern people. So long as the party to which the Press is attached holds power in the nation, the "pressure of hard times" will be felt alike by capitalists and workingmen.

HON. JAMES R. DOOLITTLE.

This veteran statesman and patriot has recently returned to his home from a tour through Europe. On Monday evening, October 28, he delivered a masterly speech at Milwaukee, to a large and enthusiastic meeting. In alluding to the great change that had come over public sentiment, he indulged in the mutual congratulation that in his own town, where he has lived for fifteen years, he is no longer met by an infuriated mob and forced to endure insult, but on the contrary, is greeted with a large and respectful audience. His views with regard to the political future of the country are full of hope, and in referring to its recently past history, he indulged in the following sound conservative doctrine that all will do well to ponder:

"I believed then, and I am now more than ever firm in the opinion, that if, two years ago, immediately upon the surrender of the armies of the rebellion, the States of the South had been recognized with their constitutional rights, and admitted to their representation in the Union, under the policy of Mr. Lincoln, all the difficulties which surround us, both financial and political, would have passed away. [Applause.] I believe that if two years ago that policy had been fairly adopted the bonds of the government of the United States, this day at six per cent., would command a premium in gold in every money centre of the world. [Applause.] I will state this fact—which I hope no one present will forget—I have met no intelligent man in Europe who has not expressed the same opinion, that if our States of the South had been admitted to representation in the Union, that the whole world could see that we were one people, one nation, with all the States represented and taking part in our legislation, our six per cent. bonds would not only be at par, but would command a premium in gold."

VIEWS OF SENATOR DIXON.

Senator Dixon, of Connecticut, is a moderate and sensible Republican. He has arrived in Washington, and is reported to express himself as follows:

The Senator is in excellent health and jubilant over the result of the recent elections. He considers the change in the public mind to be deep-seated and permanent, and not merely a transient one, likely to be altered a year hence, when the people come to elect a new President. The Senator expresses the opinion that not even General Grant could carry the country with him on a Radical platform now, and that, in fact, Radicalism has been prostrated, never to raise its head again. One effect of the elections, he thinks, will be the practical abandonment of impeachment, either formally, by an adverse report sustained by the House, or sub silentio, by letting the thing die out of its own accord from want of notice or agitation. Should Congress attempt to suspend the President pending trial the Senator considers it a question of very grave doubt whether it would not be the President's plain duty to resist what could not be regarded otherwise than as a usurpation of power by Congress.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.

Judge Agnew, in behalf of four out of five Judges of the Supreme Court, sitting at Pittsburg, recently reversed a decision of the Common Pleas of Philadelphia, in which damages had been awarded against a railroad conductor for compelling a negro woman to sit in a negro quarter of the car. Although the case occurred before the passage of the negro car-riding bill, and was not adjudicated under its provisions, yet the decision itself is a powerful and overwhelming argument against the law. And what is most remarkable, it was written and delivered by Judge Agnew, who was elected by the Republican party, and has been the most Radical member of the court. Probably Judge Agnew remembered that the last Republican State Convention declared that "the Supreme Court of the State should be placed in harmony with the political opinions of the majority of the people," and so soon as he heard the returns of the late election he hastened to do so. The decision is referred to more at length in another column.

THANKS TO THE SOLDIERS.

The great victories over Radicalism which have been won in this State and elsewhere at the recent elections have been largely owing to the intelligent votes of the soldiers. The "boys in blue" fought to restore the Union. They did not expose their lives to establish a negro empire on the ruins of the ten States they fought to save from secession. They are as manly as they are brave, and very few of them could be induced to aid in subjecting the white men and women of the South to the degrading domination of barbarian negroes just released from slavery. All the frantic appeals of the Radicals to the soldiers were unheeded. They were bound to vote as they shot—for a union of States to be ruled by white men.—Lanc. Intel.

IT is decidedly refreshing to hear Republican papers talk about intelligence, when the only adherents their party has in ten States of the Union are a set of barbarian negroes, many of whom have not intelligence enough to give in their names intelligibly when they go to vote. Let us hear no more talk about the superior intelligence of the Republican party.

EVERY stamp you put upon a deed, check or mortgage, is a sticking plaster to remind you of a war brought on by Abolition agitation, and of the immense debt piled up by shoddy thieves.

THE Cincinnati Inquirer nominates Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton for the next Presidency.

THE OPINION OF A SOLDIER.

General Sherman's speech at the reunion of the Army of the Tennessee, in St. Louis, on the 13th instant, contained, after a rehearsal of the achievements of that army during the war, an appeal to the good sense of his countrymen, North and South, which is full of soldierly magnanimity and fervor. If slavery is held to be the real cause of our civil war, then General Sherman, himself born of New England parents, "honestly believes that the people of New England, in common with all the great North who shared in the original cause and enjoyed a large part of the profits resulting from cotton and slave labor, should be charitable and liberal in the final distribution of the natural penalties." He proceeds:

If children must inherit the sins of their fathers, even in the third and fourth generations, then none of us who trace our origin back to the earlier days of this republic can escape this mathematical and philosophical conclusion; or in the language of Dr. Draper: "Guilty, then, both of us in the sight of God, let us not vex each other with mutual crimination, but bear our punishment with humility." How has this punishment been partitioned by the results of the war? We of the North have to mourn the loss of fathers, brothers, sons and friends, and are burdened with a vast national debt binding on us in fact, in law and in honor, never, I hope, to be questioned by any honorable man in America till every cent is paid. Look to the South, and you who went with me through that land can best say if they, too, have not been fearfully punished. Mourning in every household, desolation written in broad characters across the whole face of their country, cities in ashes and fields laid waste, their commerce gone, their system of labor annihilated and destroyed. Ruin, poverty, and distress everywhere, and now pestilence adding the very cap sheaf to their stack of misery; her proud men begging for pardon and appealing for permission to raise food for their children; her five millions of slaves free, and their value lost to their former masters forever

* * * * * * *

With our population increasing thirty-three per cent. every ten years; with our national wealth developing in even a greater ratio; with our frontiers pushing back in every direction; with farms and villages and cities rapidly covering our vast national domain; with mines of gold and silver and iron and coal pouring out wealth faster than ever did the cotton-fields of the South, with forty thousand miles of finished railroads, and other thousands in progress—can any one doubt our present strength, or calculate our future destiny? If our friends at the South will heartily and cheerfully join with us in this future course, I, for one, would welcome them back, our equals, but not our superiors, and lend them a helping hand.

When men like General Sherman take issue in this wise with the confiscation and destruction policy just reiterated more venomously than ever by Thaddeus Stevens, we may hope on that the real "Grand Army of the Republic"—soldiers who fought in the war and do not bluster in time of peace, are in no danger of becoming Radical enthusiasts.—N. Y. World.

NEW YORK.

The Albany Argus sums up the figures in connection with the late election in that State in such a manner as to demonstrate the substantial character of the victory achieved by the Democracy. The Argus says:

Official returns from all the counties give the Democratic State ticket 373,886 votes, and the Radical State ticket 324,017 votes, making a Democratic majority of 49,869! The aggregate vote in the State is 667,903. This is much the largest vote ever cast when the election of a Governor or President was not involved. In 1865, when Slocum and Barlow were candidates for Secretary of State, Slocum received 272,763 votes, and Barlow 300,254 votes; Barlow's majority 27,491. The comparison of this year's vote should be made with that of 1865, when the election was for the same class of State officers. It will, therefore, be seen that the increased Democratic vote over 1865, is 101,126! The increase of the Radical vote over 1865 is 24,663. Comparing the vote of 1867 with the vote of 1866, when Hoffman and Fenton were candidates for Governor, and we have a Democratic gain of 21,360; Radical loss, 42,298; net Democratic gain over 1866, 63,658! The largest vote over polled in this State was in 1864, when McClellan and Lincoln were candidates for President. The aggregate vote that year was 730,712. McClellan received 361,986, and Lincoln received 368,726. This was not only the largest vote ever cast, but each party showed greater strength than had ever before been exhibited. Thus it will be seen that the Radical vote reached its height in 1864. The Democratic vote this year is 5,163 greater than the Radical vote of 1864, and is the largest vote ever polled by any political party in this State!

KANSAS ELECTION.

The Leavenworth (Kansas Conservative) contradicts emphatically the reports of the Republican papers of that State, that the Legislature would be largely Republican. It says the counties as far as heard from show the election of 28 Democrats, 27 Radicals and 2 Independent candidates. Besides this, (it continues), in the three Senatorial vacancies the Democrats have carried all of them, and have a majority in the State on an average of the county tickets. The large Democratic majorities in Atchison, Doniphan, Leavenworth, Wyandotte, Jefferson, and Ellsworth counties alone will equal the majorities in all the Republican counties of the State. Kansas will elect next year a Democratic member of Congress, Governor, State Ticket, and three Presidential Electors—mark it.—The Democratic party has never had an organization before since Kansas became a State, and the present is very imperfect. Next year there will be a thorough organization in every county, and the Democracy will sweep the State, from the Missouri to the plains.

DENIED ADMITTANCE.—Hon. John Hickman, of West Chester, Radical member of Assembly elect, is about on a par with Thad Stevens in his admiration for the negro. On that subject he is a little insane. A few weeks ago, Fred Douglass, the negro orator, was invited to West Chester to make a speech to his sable brethren. To show that he practiced what he preached, Mr. Hickman extended an invitation to Douglass to be his guest during his stay in the town, which invitation was accepted. The best chamber in Hickman's elegant mansion was put in trim, and the large parlors thrown open for the accommodation of the Boston negro. Mrs. Hickman, however, had no stomach for all this, and when Douglass arrived and was about to set foot in the elegant parlors, she confronted him and gave a peremptory order that he should leave, pointing him at the same time to the front door. And leave he did, to find quarters with some one of his own color. This is another evidence that however much some men may prate about "equality of the races," white women cannot and will not become the advocates of the detestible doctrine.—Mrs. Hickman is a Carlisle lady, and deserves credit for her determination to resist the attempt of her husband to make her home a negro rendezvous.—Carlisle Volunteer.

FIVE PERSONS BURNED TO ASHES.—Near Cincinnati, on Thursday morning week, a freight train of cars ran into the Express, setting fire to the latter. Four ladies and one man were burned to death, and nearly all the train burned to ashes.

NEGROES IN THE CARS.

The Radicals seem to be exceedingly unfortunate in their selection of men for official positions. Andrew Johnson is not the only man who has turned his back upon the party which elevated him to power. When Judge Agnew was elected to the Supreme Court, he was regarded as the strongest type of a Radical. Whilst his ability and integrity were conceded by all parties, there was a general impression prevailing that, upon questions involving the tenets of his party creed, he would be extremely ultra. No suspicion was entertained by anybody that he would fail to take his position along with the advance guard of "the party of great moral ideas."—Everybody was therefore astonished to learn that he has chimed in with the overwhelming popular sentiment, and uttered his condemnation of the odious doctrine of the social equality of the races.

In a case which came up to the Supreme Court recently, from the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia county. Judge Agnew delivered an opinion which is a model for conciseness and perspicuity, to say nothing of its sound doctrine. The plaintiff was a colored woman, named Mary E. Miles, who brought a suit against the Philadelphia and West Chester Railroad Company, to recover damages for being ejected from a car in which white persons were seated, and forced to take a seat in another car, to which she was directed by the conductor of the train. Judgment was rendered in her favor in the court below, whereupon a writ of error was sued out to the Supreme Court. The question involved was, as stated by Judge Agnew, "whether a public carrier may, in the exercise of his private right of property, and in the due performance of his public duty, separate passengers by any other well defined characteristic than that of sex." The court take the affirmative side of the question, and base their opinion upon two grounds, namely, the right of private property which the carrier has in the means of conveyance, and the public interest. We quote from the opinion of Judge Agnew on the second ground:

The public also has an interest in the proper regulation of public conveyances for the preservation of the public peace. A railroad company has the right and is bound to make reasonable regulations to preserve order in their cars. It is the duty of the conductor to repress tumults as far as he reasonably can, and he may on extraordinary occasions stop his train and eject the unruly and tumultuous. But he has not the authority of a peace officer to arrest and detain offenders. He cannot interfere in the quarrels of others at will merely. In order to preserve and enforce his authority as the servant of the company it must have power to establish proper regulations for the carriage of passengers. It is much easier to prevent difficulties among passengers by regulations for their proper separation than it is to quell them. The danger to the peace engendered by this feeling of aversion between individuals of the different races cannot be denied. It is the fact with which the company must deal. If a negro takes his seat beside a white man, or his wife, or daughter, the law cannot repress the anger or conquer the aversion which some will feel. However unwise it may be to indulge the feeling, human infirmity is not always proof against it. It is much wiser to avert the consequences of this repulsion of race by separation, than to punish afterwards the breach of the peace it may have caused.

The Supreme Court thus recognize the fact of an unconquerable aversion, on the part of the whites, to the idea and practice of being placed in social contact with the negro. They doubtless speak from experience as well as observation. And if they had needed any additional evidence to convince them, the result of the late elections would furnish them with the judgment of the white masses upon this question. But the opinion goes further. It announces the fact, that a Higher Power than any human agency has fixed a great gulf between the two races, across which it was never intended that either should pass. It says:

Why the Creator made one black and the other white we know not; but the fact is apparent, and the races distinct, each producing its own kind, and following the peculiar law of its constitution. Conceding equality, with natures as perfect and rights as sacred, yet God has made them dissimilar, with those natural instincts and feelings which He always imparts to his creatures when He intends that they shall not overstep the natural boundaries He has assigned to them. The natural law which forbids their intermarriage and that social amalgamation which leads to a corruption of races, is as clearly divine as that which imparted to them different natures. The tendency of intimate social intermixture is to amalgamation, contrary to the laws of races. The separation of the white and black races upon the surface of the globe is a fact equally apparent. Why this is so, it is not necessary to speculate, but the fact of a distribution of men by race and color, is as visible in the providential arrangement of the earth as that of heat and cold. The natural separation of the races is therefore an undeniable fact, and social organizations which lead to their amalgamation, are repugnant to the law of nature. From social amalgamation, it is but a step to illicit intercourse, and but another to intermarriage.

And, after showing conclusively, in addition, that the laws and customs of the State have been uniformly against an intermixture of the races, this admirable opinion closes as follows:

Following these guides, we are compelled to declare that at the time of the alleged injury, there was that natural, legal and customary difference between the black and white races in this State, which made their separation as passengers in a public conveyance the subject of a sound regulation, to secure order, promote comfort, preserve the peace, and maintain the rights both of carriers and passengers.

What a terrible damper upon the progressive notions of the Radical party! How it undermines and explodes the Radical legislation of the last session of our General Assembly, which imposes a heavy penalty upon the conductors or other employees of railroad companies who refuse the negro the right to sit in whatever seat he pleases! Judge Agnew deserves the thanks of every white man in the Commonwealth, not so much for entertaining these views as for having the independence to give expression to them. But we submit to our Radical friends that he is sadly in need of "reconstruction," and that it might be well to have the perambulating committee on "a republican form of government," to take him and his opinion into special consideration.—Valley Spirit.

BLACK REPUBLICAN STATESMEN.—Two of the negro candidates for seats in the North Carolina State Convention, both of whom were elected triumphantly, issued a circular to the negro voters of their district, of which the following is a verbatim copy:

If thar should Bee any Cullared Person that wants to vote A Democratic vote, frail (beat) him until he Knows Nothing. If you Do that Will Bee just like they served them in Virginia, and if thar should Bee a man of such Carrecter, make him sure for a while.

This is at the same time a fair sample of negro intelligence and of the evil spirit which the Radicals have succeeded in instilling into the negro's mind.

THE Radical Chicago Tribune sets down the ten Southern States as certain to cast 243,000 majority for Grant next year. Good Lord, is the negro vote the only sure thing the Rads have to go into the Presidential contest with? What a whittling down of a big party!

Local Department.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

Thanksgiving, yesterday, was generally observed by our citizens. Union services were had in the Presbyterian Church, and business places were closed.

Dry Goods have greatly fallen, and the places to get the best bargains will be found by referring to the advertising columns of the COMPILER.

The Little Folks.—The Tom Thumb troupe exhibited in Agricultural Hall, in this place, on Wednesday afternoon and evening, to full houses.

Installed.—Rev. J. R. Warner, lately of this place, was recently installed as Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Kirkwood, Missouri.

Accepted.—Rev. T. C. Billheimer, late of the Theological Seminary, at this place, has accepted a call from the Lutheran congregation at Watsontown, Northumberland county, and has entered upon his duties. He will make an acceptable pastor.

Land Sales.—Samuel McNay has sold a farm of 385 acres, in Liberty township, to Andrew Marshall, at $20 per acre—part in western lands.

Peter Rimbaugh has purchased Edw. Potts' property, in Mountpleasant township—about 40 acres, at $87 per acre.

Almost a Fire.—The hotel of Daniel Becker, in East Berlin, made a narrow escape from fire, one day week before last, by reason of a child playing with matches in one of the bed-rooms. When discovered, the bed was in a blaze, and the wood-work of the room scorched, but by prompt efforts further damage was prevented

Building Association.—A Building Association will soon be organized at Petersburg, in this county. Application for a charter was made to the Court last week. The Gettysburg Association has proven a thorough success, and the stock is commanding a high premium. A number of the members have already secured themselves comfortable houses through it, and others will do the same as long as the Association continues in existence. The town is "all the better for it."

Bequests.—Mrs. Susan H. Thorn, of Carlisle, who died a few days ago, bequeathed $21,500 to religious and benevolent objects—among them $2,500 each to the Princeton Theological Seminary and the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg.

Rev. Mr. Botts, one of the oldest Lutheran ministers in the country, and who recently died at Lancaster, Pa., divided his library between the Lutheran Seminaries at Gettysburg and Philadelphia.

Teachers' Institute.—The Adams County Teachers' Institute assembled at New Oxford on Monday and will continue in session until this evening, in accordance with the five-day requirement of an Act passed last winter The attendance has been unusually full. On Tuesday, when we paid the Institute a flying visit, the number of teachers present was about one hundred and twenty-five. At the election on Monday, J. H. Wert was chosen President, and John M. Wolf Secretary. Lectures were delivered during the sessions by Rev. Dr. Brown, Prof. Ehrehart, Prof. Boyd, of York county, Prof. Wickersham, Dr. Pfeiffer, Superintendent Sheely and others, and essays read by a number of the teachers. This meeting is the most successful yet had by the Institute, and must result profitably to all in attendance A better looking and more intelligent body of teachers than Adams county can produce it would be difficult to find anywhere.

Sabbath School Convention.—The Sabbath school Convention organized in the Lutheran Church on Chambersburg street, on Monday evening. R. G. McCreary, Esq., was chosen President, and Rev. Mr. Breidenbaugh Secretary. Rev. Dr. Hay delivered the introductory address. During the several sessions, which continued until Wednesday night, addresses were delivered by Rev. Alfred Taylor, Rev. Dr. Willitts, Ex-Gov. Pollock and J. A. Gardner, Esq., whilst the discussions were participated in by these and a number of other gentlemen. Rev. Taylor's instructions on the blackboard were specially happy, and became the subject of general remark. The attendance was large throughout.

Sabbath Schools. Interesting Sabbath School exercises took place in the German Reformed Church on Sunday morning last. Appropriate addresses by Rev. Mr. Deatrich, the pastor, and Rev. Mr. Love, of Huntington county, were delivered, and the children sung a number of sacred pieces very sweetly. A collection was taken for the benefit of the Sabbath School library, and a handsome sum realized—nearly eighty dollars, we believe.

The Sabbath School held at Boyd's School house, under the superintendance of Mr. Riemensnyder, gave an exhibition on the evening of the 9th inst. The exercises delighted the large number in attendance from the beginning to the close. Singing, speeches and dialogues by the children, and orations by Messrs. Lady and Richard, made up the programme. Twenty-seven dollars were realized to start a Sabbath School library.

A Dreadful Accident. A sad occurrence took place in Lower Windsor township, York county, about seven miles southwest of Wrightsville, on Saturday afternoon week, which resulted in the death of Mrs. George Reider. Mrs. Reider, who was subject to fits, was engaged in kneading bread, when she was overcome by a convulsion, and falling against the hearth of the stove, it was broken off, causing the coal to fall out on her clothing, setting them on fire, by which she was so severely burned as to cause her death. Her husband was absent from home at the time, attending a sale, and she was found in the yard by a neighbor, where it is supposed she had crawled to obtain assistance. She suffered intensely until some time during the night, when death ensued.

Sudden Death.—On last Thursday, Mr. Jacob Dresler, of Union township, Adams county, died very suddenly on his way to work, some distance from his residence. In company with a neighbor he left his home, and on his way sat down to rest, and while there but a few moments he was observed to fall over, and instantly expired. His age was about 48 years.—Hanover Citizen.

Nerve.—There is truth in the remark of the Louisville Journal, that "a little nerve is needed in advertising as well as in using any other effective means of success. Your men who have no more nerve than a wet rag, advertise little or not at all, and they succeed little or not at all. You may suppose that we are giving advice that we think would benefit ourselves. Yes, we do think it would benefit us, but benefit you immensely more. Think a little, and you will agree with us. And if you agree with us, be wise enough to act accordingly."

Court Proceedings.—Part of the proceedings of November Court were given in our last. We have now to report the following:

COMMON PLEAS.

George E. Brandt, Administrator of Thos. Stephens, deceased, vs. John Evans, Administrator of Henry Fickel, deceased. A compromise verdict was taken in this case by consent of parties, for defendant.

Edwin P. Fisher vs. Sylvester Harner. Replevin for a gray mare. Plaintiff had sold the mare in dispute to a third party, who, after getting possession, transferred her to defendant, claiming to have acted as defendant's agent in the purchase—the latter having a claim on plaintiff, declined payment for the mare. Plaintiff refused to recognize the agency, and brought suit to recover the mare at her value. Verdict for plaintiff for $91 89.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

Commonwealth vs. John Martin.—Larceny of chickens from Richard Mummert, of Oxford township. Verdict guilty. Sentenced to county prison 60 days, and to pay costs of prosecution.

Commonwealth vs. Philip Group.—Malicious mischief, in injuring the sale of cider and vinegar, property of Jacob Brame, of Tyrone township. Verdict guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs; and give security in sum of $200 to keep the peace for two years.

Commonwealth vs. Silas Griner.—Malicious mischief. Defendant in previous case made the information in this case, involving the same charge, being in the nature of a cross-fire, Griner having previously testified against Group. Verdict not guilty, but prosecutor and defendant each to pay half the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Charles Heist.—Indictment for House-breaking, on information of Hiram Kepner, who charged defendant with having entered his residence through a window, during his absence. Defendant admitted having so entered but not with felonious intent, his object being to get a gun to shoot a hawk. The jury thought there was no felonious intent, and rendered a verdict of not guilty.

Commonwealth vs. John Vanhausta and Mary Vanhausta.—Indictment for larceny of clothing, property of David C. Brinkerhoff, of Straban township. Defendants plead guilty, and were sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment and to pay costs.

Commonwealth vs. same.—Larceny of clothing, property of Druscilla Herbst, residing with Mr. Brinkerhoff. Defendants plead guilty, and were sentenced to 30 days' additional imprisonment.

Now is the time to commence.—Terms, $3 a year. Address L. A. Godey, N. E. corner Sixth and Chesnut streets, Philadelphia. See prospectus, in another column.

Mail Routes.—Since, our last we learn that the Second Assistant Postmaster General has issued a circular requesting bidders on the Bendersville route (No. 2163), in addition to bidding for the service as advertised, to bid for an additional trip on Thursday. Bidders on Routes No. 2161 (Gettysburg and Hagerstown), and No. 2192 (Gettysburg and Mechanicstown) are also invited to bid additionally on these routes for reverse days, viz:—to leave Hagerstown and Mechanicstown, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and leave Gettysburg on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Stoves!—Stoves!—at S. G Cook's, York st., Gettysburg. Particular attention is called to Small & Smyser's Pennsylvania Cook, No. 8. The fire place of this stove takes in a piece of wood two feet long, which makes it the cheapest stove in the market; its baking and heating qualities have been thoroughly tested, and never failed to give satisfaction. He has the exclusive sale in Gettysburg of this stove, and also of the Empire and Oriental self-feeding Base Burners, two of the best stoves ever invented. They can be seen in operation at the Keystone House and Globe Inn. tf Street Etiquette.—If a gentleman steps on a lady's dress in the street, which should apologize? Such is the query that comes to us in a male like hand.—Neither In the first place the lady has a right to have any amount of her dress on the side-walk; and the gentleman has an equally good right to step where he will. Apologies and explanations are mere matters of individual opinion. The worst part of it is that the dress of the lady is more apt to suffer than the boot of the gentleman. As things are this cannot be helped. When the order of costume is reversed the ladies will be in luck. Hitherto they haven't been in matters of easy-getting about garments.

One of the greatest causes of ill-health is Indigestion or Dyspepsia, with their attendant miseries, such as Headache, Sour Stomach, Loss of Appetite, Depression of Spirits, &. Coe's Dyspepsia Cure will certainly cure these troubles, as thousands can testify.

Sentenced.—A York paper says: "The time for the sentence of Wm. Donovan, the convicted murderer of the Squibb family, has been fixed for the 3d of December next. On that day his doom will be sealed under the laws of the State, and the last, sad scene in this eventful tragedy be publicly announced."

The Best Thing Yet.—We have recently had sufficient evidence of the excellence of Mr. Speer's Port Grape Wine, which not only convinces us that all we can say in its praise is deserved, but that we are really confering a favor on our readers in advising them to use it. The wine is a pure grape wine, entirely unmixed, and the most agreeable and delicious in flavor of any we ever tasted. Of its medicinal qualities, we entertain the very highest opinion, and upon the evidence of our own observations. Three bottles of this wine have nearly effected a perfect cure in the case of our little boy, who has been seven years afflicted with incontinence of the urine. A great number of remedies have been tried without benefit, and the most eminent physicians consulted with a like result. Speer's Port Grape Wine is effecting a cure. We have given this testimony without the knowledge of Mr. Speer, in the hope that others may be induced to try the virtues of this wine —Mr. Pangborn, Editor of Jersey City Times.

THE PRESS ON IMPEACHMENT.

[From the Philadelphia Ledger, Independent]

This proceeding, (the proposed impeachment,) even though it should fail to receive the endorsement of the House, can hardly fail to disturb the business interests of the country. They are now so seriously unsettled and embarrassed that even adverse trifles aggravate their condition; but this step, on so exciting a subject, is by no means a trifle. And all to what end? The belief is general that the sense of a considerable majority of the House, although much incensed against the President, is against impeachment. But the immediate effect will be to precipitate Congress into a passionate partisan debate, when the minds of all the members should be devoted to a cool and dispassionate consideration of the great needs of the industrial and business interests of the whole country. At this time, when so many factories are closed and closing; when so many people are out of employment; when so many of those who are employed are either working on short time, or are threatened with reduced wages; when the currency, the debt and the revenue need so much care and attention; when so many men who are in business, and who in ordinary times would regard themselves as prosperous and safe, are apprehensive that some adverse political blast may crumble their substance and their business into ashes. At such a time these interests should have the earnest and important attention of Congress, to the exclusion of everything calculated to embarrass their action by arousing partisan passion. These are matters that the toiling millions should think of and impress their representatives about, for they are of infinitely more importance to them than the question of who shall distribute official patronage for a few months or a year or so.

[From the New York Times, Republican.]

Unless the evidence gathered by the judiciary committee embraces facts altogether new to the country, the report recommending impeachment will amount to nothing. The allegations on which Mr Boutwell, as the mouthpiece of the majority, relies to justify the measure and insure its success, are merely a rehash of charges again and again preferred during the progress of the reconstruction controversy, and always for political effect. No striking accusation appears—no terse statement of fact that can arouse popular feeling and reconcile it to a formal arraignment of the executive. "An unconstitutional usurpation of power" in the organization of State governments—a "denial of the right of Congress to control" reorganization—sins of omission and commission in connection with these positions, such are the leading counts in the indictment presented by Mr. Boutwell, and a sorry exhibit they form as a groundwork of impeachment. If partisan ingenuity can discover no offense more tangible than those here imputed we may be quite sure that Mr. Johnson has little to fear from the recommendation which has been reported. * * * * *

The prevailing hope is that the moderation and good sense of the majority of the House will triumph over the intemperate counsels of the extremists, and so bring to naught an agitation which menaces with ruin every financial and commercial interest. The public are evidently unwilling to assume that the Republican party will be mad enough to precipitate the crisis which impeachment involves. Upon this point the Wall-street barometer is conclusive. Gold rose a fraction or two under the momentary excitement of the news on Monday, but quickly subsided to the figure at which it opened. The same skepticism exists everywhere. The country has not much faith in the judgment of many of the leading spirits of the House, but it is not prepared to believe that the dominant party is intent upon committing suicide.

BEFORE the recent election in Virginia, the military humbug Milroy took it into his stupid head to go on an electioneering tour to the Valley of Virginia.—When he was addressing a crowd of negroes from the Court House steps a sable damsel stepped up and presented him with a huge bouquet. Immediately after another daughter of Africa spoiled the pleasurable emotions excited in his mind by the fragrant offering, by advancing and presenting him a bill for a dollar he owed her at the time he "skedaddled" before Ewell. He at first declined to pay, but she followed him, up until she compelled him to "shell out." He did so, protesting against the interruption

THE Radical papers of Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin, which have all along been figuring out a Radical majority in the State of 6,000, are reluctantly but inevitably reducing their figures as the official figures come in. Thus, the State journal published at the capital now concedes that the majority must fall below 5,000, and the Milwaukee Sentinel rather mournfully coincides with this moderated view.

The Poor Man's Friend.—Doctors bills are too long for a poor man's pocket, but many of them may be avoided by keeping Grace's Celebrated Salve in the cupboard. It is the "precious pot of ointment," curing burns, cuts, scalds, bruises, sprains, wounds, chilblains, chapped hands, &c. Mothers, do not neglect to save your husband's hard-earned money, but purchase a box of this salve, only 25 cts.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1868.

The Cheapest of Ladies' Magazines, because it is the best!

THE friend of woman, the arbiter of fashion, the encourager and publisher of the best literature of the day, the pattern from which all others copy.

Reading Matter.—In this there will be an improvement. The volume for 1868 will be set up with new-faced type, and of a size that will enable us to give an additional quantity of reading matter, amounting to about twelve pages in each number.

Beautiful Steel Plates.—Of these the Lady's Book contains fourteen each year, superior (we challenge comparison) to any published in this country, either in book or periodical.

The Literature of the Lady's Book.—Marion Harland, authoress of "Alone" "Hidden Path," "Moss Side," "Nemesis," and "Miriam," who contributes to no other monthly publication will furnish a new novel for 1868, called "Phemie Rowland," that will run through the year. Her stories are anxiously sought after, and as they are copyrighted can be found nowhere but in Godey. Our former efficient corps of writers has also been retained.

Our Fashion Plates.—The original double fashion plates will be continued.

Model Cottages.—The only Magazine in this country that gives these designs is the Lady's Book.

Drawing Lessons.—In these we are alone.

Original Music.—Godey's is the only Magazine in which music prepared expressly for it appears.

We have also a Children's, a Horticultural and a Health department.

Godey's Invaluable Receipts upon every subject, for the Boudoir, Nursery, Kitchen, House, and Laundry.

Tinted Engravings.—This is a series of engravings that no one has attempted but ourselves. They give great satisfaction.

Ladies' Fancy Work Department.—Some of the designs in this department are printed in colors in a style unequalled.

Ballou's Monthly Magazine for 1868.

ENLARGED TO ONE HUNDRED PAGES.

THE circulation of BALLOU'S MAGAZINE having increased during 1867 nearly fifteen thousand copies and never being so prosperous as at present, the publishers are thereby induced to still further add to its value by enlarging each number to one hundred pages. Although this enlargement involves an additional expense of some $5,000 a year, yet there will be no increase in the price.

Now is the time to get up Clubs.

"ANYBODY HURT?"

The great down-fall of Radicalism calls forth the above question. How is it with you, Mr. Republican? Do you still think that the Democratic party is "dead?" How do you like the result of the late elections? Stand up! Look pleasant! Face the music! Did you hear from Pennsylvania? How's New York? What's wrong in "Jersey?" Think you will impeach Andy? Ah, gentlemen, it's all up with you! The people have decided and their verdict is against your wishes. They do not want another revolution! They do not want a patched Constitution! They do not want a divided country! White men do not want to be governed by negroes. The time for overriding public sentiment, and stifling the demand for a just and equitable administration of the laws, is past, nevermore, we hope, to be heard of on this continent. The battle-cry of "disloyalty" has lost its force, and the clap-trap expedient of giving nicknames has gone for what it is worth. The veil has been torn from the face of the monster, before whom the people of this country have been called upon to bow down and give reverence; its deformities have made it a laughing stock. Its army of negro cohorts works no dismay in men determined upon asserting their rights, but on the contrary, fires their resolution to throttle the evil spirit that has brought us to the verge of anarchy.

A RADICAL paper announces that all the tried statesmen are with the Republican party.

Yes, and many others who have not been tried, but ought to be; for instance Butler, for stealing spoons.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—It is ascertained that the Island of Tortola suffered no more than the neighboring islands during the recent hurricanes.

GEN. A. L. Russel, late Adjutant General of Pennsylvania, is a candidate for Clerk of the House of Representatives.

SCHOFIELD, it is rumored, is a candidate for United States Senator from Virginia.

Dyspepsia.

There is no disease which experience has so amply proved to be remediable by the PERUVIAN SYRUP, a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron, as Dyspepsia. Horrible Accident.

A man some time since was repairing a gas leak, corner of 28th Street and 8th Avenue, New York. He went into the excavation and then lit a match. An explosion of the gas took place, and the man was much burned. DR. TOBIAS' Venitian Liniment was applied freely, and in three days the man was about his business in the Manhattan Gas Works as well as ever. His name is Samuel F. Waters. This is one of the wonderful cures made by DR. TOBIAS' celebrated Venitian Liniment; it is not only good for Burns, Throats, Cuts, Insect Stings, Pains in the Limbs, Chest and Back; also internally, for Colic, Cramps, Diarrhea, Dysentery and Croup. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and is the best family medicine in the world. Orders are received all over Europe for it. The most celebrated Physicians recommend it—it never fails. DR. TOBIAS puts up every drop himself. Sold by all Druggists at 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Depot, 56 Cortlandt street, N. Y.

A Card to the Ladies.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PERIODICAL PILLS FOR FEMALES. Infallible in correcting irregularities, removing obstructions of the monthly turns, from whatever cause, and always successful as a preventive.

It is now over thirty years since the above celebrated Pills were discovered by DR. DUPONCO, of Paris, during which time they have been extensively and successfully used in most of the public institutions, as well as in private practice, of both hemispheres, with unparalleled success, in every case, and it is only at the urgent request of the thousands of ladies who have used them, that he is induced to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family where health will not permit it.

ONE PILL IS A DOSE.

Females peculiarly situated, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition lest they "invite miscarriage," after which admonition, the Proprietor assumes no responsibility, although their mildness will prevent any mischief to health, otherwise the Pills are recommended as a MOST INVALUABLE REMEDY for all those afflicting complaints so peculiar to the sex.

ONE BOX IS SUFFICIENT.

10,000 Boxes have been sold within two Years, Ten Thousand Boxes sent by Mail, both by myself and Agents, to all parts of the world, to which answers have been returned, in which ladies say, nothing like the above Pills have been known since the science of Medicine dawned upon the world, in Removing Obstructions and Restoring Nature to its Proper Channel, Quieting the Nerves and bringing back the "Rosy Color of Health" to the cheek of the most delicate.

UP SALT RIVER.

Come, boys, come, the boat is leaving;
All is lost; 'tis no use grieving;
Jump on board, each seize an oar,
Up Salt River we go once more.
Chorus—We're going to row all night,
We're going to row all day;
We bet our money on the Sambo horse,
And Sharswood won the day.

The breeze is up; then wait no longer,
Every hour the tide grows stronger;
The Union waves run mountain high,
And hark, on every side they cry,
Chorus—We're going to row all night, &c.

We thought our horse must win this fall,
But find he had no wind at all;
Oh, had we left the nigger out that bill
We might be gaily singing still.
Chorus—We're going to row all night, &c.

Then hoist the sails and bid farewell
To office that we love so well;
Should aught grow scarce amongst our crew
The Freedmen's Bureau will beef us through.
Chorus—We're going to row all night, &c.

Quick, start, it drives us to despair,
To hear those shoutings rend the air,
Cut the cable, hoist the sails, off she goes,
When we'll get back the d—l only knows.
Chorus—We're going to row all night, &c.

DR. LIVINGSTONE is now known to have been alive and well, in Middle Africa, in April last.

A LOYAL VICTORY.—An Irishman at Maysville, Ky., having requested some boys to make less noise around the house where his wife was sick, was attacked brutally by forty or fifty negro men, beaten badly, and one leg broken.

WINTER apples are selling at Brockport, N. Y., for $2 and $2 25 per barrel, and chestnuts are pouring into New York city by the car load.

THE New York Herald says that "there is not a single great soldier in the country, there never was a corps commander in the Army of the Potomac, who was not a Democrat before the war."

IT is a singular fact that ladies who know how to preserve anything else, can't preserve their tempers. Yet it may easily be done on the self sealing principle. It is only to keep the mouth of the vessel tightly closed.

AMERICAN

WATCHES.

The true value of Machinery applied to Watchmaking is not that by its use Watches are made rapidly, but that they are made correctly. Very few people know why a Waltham Watch should be superior to any other. In the first place, at Waltham the Watch is regarded as only a machine, to be constructed like any other machine, on mechanical principles. If the Watches are good, it is because the machinery is good. Of course there must be no defect in the principle or plan of the movement—no mistake in the sizes or shapes of the pieces of which it is composed—nothing wanting in their properties, and no error in their positions. These points once thoroughly settled, it rests wholly with the machinery, constructed with infinite diversity of form and function expressly for the purpose, to produce the finished pieces. By means of multiplying gauges and microscopes, tests and inspection for the detection of wear in the cutting tools, and for faults and flaws in steel or stone are made to accompany the work in every stage from beginning to end. As a necessary result, the watch goes together a perfect machine. Every part is found to fit properly in its place. Every pin may be pushed till it pinches, and every screw turned home. Instead of a sluggish and feeble action, the balance, even under the pressure of the slightest mainspring, vibrates with a wide and free motion, and the beat has the clear ringing sound always characteristic of the Waltham Watch. The machine is a time keeper from the start.

This system of watchmaking is unknown in foreign countries, and is entirely original with the Waltham Company. The Company claim that by it they produce watches that cannot be equalled for every quality that makes a watch valuable. Simple in plan and correct in principle, the movement is not only beautifully finished, substantial, accurate and cheap, but is uniform in the minutest details, not easily damaged, and when repaired always as good as new. There are different grades of finish in the different varieties of watches made by the Waltham Company, as there are different sizes and shapes to suit all tastes and means; but every Watch that bears the genuine trade-mark of "WALTHAM" is guarantied to be a good one, and nobody need be afraid to buy it.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

TO the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions:

The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania inquiring in and for the County of Adams, at November Sessions, 1867, beg leave to report that we visited the Alms House and County Jail. The [illegible] found the paupers well provided for, the buildings clean, and everything comfortable. There have been between four and five hundred yards of ditching done, which was very necessary; the barn much improved by new weatherboarding and painting. The Steward deserves the thanks of the people of the county for his attention and care. We would recommend that the north end of the Insane Hospital be repaired, and in the main building at the north corner a new stove be put in.

At the Jail we found the rooms clean, the prisoners comfortable, the Deputy Sheriff obliging and careful, and would recommend some improvement to be made in some of the cells, and the bake oven to have a new roof or be repaired.

500 MILES

OF THE

UNION

PACIFIC RAILROAD,

Running West from Omaha

ACROSS THE CONTINENT,

ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THE Union Pacific Railroad Company have built a longer line of railroad in the last eighteen months than was ever built by any other company in the same time, and they will continue the work with the same energy until it is completed. The Western Division is being pushed rapidly eastward from Sacramento by the Central Pacific Company of California, and it is expected that to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870. MORE THAN ONE-THIRD OF THE WORK HAS ALREADY BEEN DONE, MORE THAN ONE-THIRD OF THE WHOLE LINE IS NOW IN RUNNING ORDER, AND MORE LABORERS ARE NOW EMPLOYED UPON IT THAN EVER BEFORE. More than have already been expended by the two powerful companies that have undertaken the enterprise, and there is no lack of funds for its most vigorous prosecution. When the United States Government found it necessary to secure the construction of the Union Pacific Railroad, to develop and protect its own interests, it gave the Companies authorized to build it such ample aid as should render its speedy completion beyond a doubt. The available means of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, derived from the Government and its own stockholders, may be briefly summed up as follows:

1.—UNITED STATES BONDS.

Having thirty years to run and bearing six per cent. currency interest at the rate of $16,000 per mile for 517 miles on the plains; then at the rate of $48,000 per mile for 150 miles through the Rocky Mountains; then at the rate of $32,000 per mile for the remaining distance, for which the United States takes a second lien as security. The interest on these bonds is paid by the United States government, which also pays the company one-half the amount of its bills in money for transporting its freight, troops, mails, &c. The remaining half of these bills is placed to the company's credit, and forms a sinking fund which may finally discharge the whole amount of this lien. The claims against the government since April of the current year amount to four and one-half times this interest.

2.—FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS.

By its charter the Company is permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to the same amount as the bonds issued by the government, and no more, and only as the road progresses. The Trustees for the bondholders are the Hon. E. D. Morgan, U. S. Senator from New York, and the Hon. Oakes Ames, Member of U. S. House of Representatives, who are responsible for the delivery of these bonds to the Company in strict accordance with the terms of the law.

3.—THE LAND GRANT.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company has a land grant or absolute donation from the government of 12,800 acres to the mile on the road, which will not be worth less than $1 50 per acre at the lowest valuation.

4.—THE CAPITAL STOCK.

The authorized capital of the Union Pacific Railroad Company is $100,000,000, of which over $5,000,000 have been paid on the work already done.

THE MEANS SUFFICIENT TO BUILD THE ROAD.

Contracts for the entire work of building 914 miles of first-class railroad west of Omaha, comprising much of the most difficult mountain work, and embracing every expense except surveying, have been made with responsible parties who have already finished over 500 miles, at the average rate of sixty-eight thousand and fifty-eight dollars ($68,058) per mile. This price includes all necessary shops for construction and repairs of cars, depots, stations and all other incidental buildings, and also locomotives, passenger, baggage, and freight cars, and other requisite rolling-stock, to an amount that shall not be less than $5,000 per mile. Allowing the cost of the remaining one hundred and eighty-six of the eleven hundred miles assumed to be built by the Pacific Company to be $90,000 per mile,

THE TOTAL COST OF ELEVEN HUNDRED MILES WILL BE AS FOLLOWS:

914 miles, at $68,058	$62,205,012
186 miles, at $90,000	16,740,000
Add discounts on bonds, surveys, &c	4,500,000
Amount	$83,445,012

As the U. S. Bonds are equal to money, and the Company's own First Mortgage Bonds have a ready market, we have as the

AVAILABLE CASH RESOURCES FOR BUILDING ELEVEN HUNDRED MILES:

U. S. Bonds	$29,328,000
First Mortgage Bonds	29,328,000
Capital stock paid in on work done	5,369,750
Land Grant, 14,080,000 acres, $1 50 per a.	21,120,000
Total	$85,145,750

The company have ample facilities for supplying any deficiency that may arise in means for construction. This may be done wholly or in part by additional subscriptions to capital stock.

Active inquiry has already been made for a portion of these lands, and arrangements are now proposed to offer a part of them for sale. While their whole value will not be available for some years to come, they will remain a very important source of revenue to the Company. The lands of the Illinois Central Railroad Company are selling at from $6 to $12 per acre, and other land-grant companies in the West are receiving equal prices for similar properties.

FUTURE BUSINESS.

The most skeptical have never expressed a doubt that when the Union Pacific Railroad is finished the immense business that must flow over it, as the only railroad connecting the two grand divisions of the North American continent, will be one of the wonders of railway transportation; and as it will have no competitor it can always charge remunerative rates.

EARNINGS FROM WAY BUSINESS.

During the quarter ending July 31, an average of 325 miles of the Union Pacific Railroad was in operation. The Superintendent's Report shows the following result:

EARNINGS.

Passengers, Freight, Telegraph, Mails,	$728,755 54
Transportation of Contractors' Materials and Men	479,283 41
Total	$1,208,038 95

EXPENSES.

Fuel, Repairs, Offices, Conductors, Trains, &c.	$330,530 92
NET EARNINGS to balance	867,508 03
Total	$1,208,038 95

The net operating expenses on the commercial business for the quarter were $237,996 50. The account for the COMMERCIAL BUSINESS stands as follows:

Earnings for May, June and July	$728,755 54
Expenses, " " "	237,996 50
Net Profit	$490,759 04

The amount of Bonds the Company can issue on 325 miles, at $16,000 per mile, is $5,200,000. Interest in gold, three months, at 6 per cent., on this sum, is $78,000; add 40 per cent. premium, to correspond with currency earnings, is $109,200—showing that the net earnings for this quarter were more than four times the interest on the First Mortgage Bonds on this length of road.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

whose principal is so amply provided for, and whose interest is so thoroughly secured, must be classed among the safest investments. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD, and are offered for the present at NINETY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, and accrued interest at Six Per Cent. in Currency from July 1.

Many parties are taking advantage of the present high price of Government stocks to exchange for these Bonds, which are over FIFTEEN PER CENT. CHEAPER, and, at the current rate of premium on gold, pay

OVER NINE PER CENT. INTEREST.

Subscriptions will be received in GETTYSBURG, by GETTYSBURG NATIONAL BANK and FIRST NATIONAL BANK, and in New York at the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, and by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, No. 7 Nassau street.

CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, No. 51 Wall st.,
JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 33 Wall st.,

and by the Company's advertised Agents throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained on application. Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the bonds will be sent free of charge by return express.

FERTILIZERS.

There is no subject that the farmer should be better acquainted with than the character of the different fertilizers which are employed to enrich his soil and increase his crops; simply because they are expensive, and to be useful, should be properly applied. I have been induced to write this article because there is a common error prevalent among farmers that any one of the numerous fertilizers employed is sufficient, and, while Mr. Jones is wedded, in his opinion, to lime, Mr. Smith prefers guano, it being a mere matter of fancy after all.

Now, first, I propose to allude to a fertilizer that has come into common use, and which is being manufactured by many farmers themselves, having purchased the receipts from men traveling about the country selling them, and which is composed of bone-dust or phosphate of lime, and oil of vitriol or sulphuric acid.

By taking phosphate of lime or powdered bones and digesting them for twenty-four hours with two-thirds of their weight of strong sulphuric acid or oil of vitriol, previously diluted with twelve times its weight of water, you will separate the greater part of the lime, which is precipitated a sulphate of lime, from the phosphoric acid. Now the sulphate of lime or plaster, in this preparation, does not amount to anything as a fertilizer from its very small quantity, but it is the phosphoric acid that remains in solution, and after having been absorbed by "bottom soil" mixed with it, is then dried and sowed upon ground already prepared, that produces the effect upon the crop. Phosphorus is a powerful stimulant to the vegetable as well as the animal economy, and while it requires but a very minute quantity to produce an effect, as a fertilizer it is the most important of all the acid constituents of the soil. Of eighteen specimens of soil forwarded by the Government at Washington to Mr. James C. Booth, of Philadelphia, for analysis, it was to be detected in but six, and in one of these its presence was considered doubtful.

But while phosphoric acid is of so much importance as a constituent principle of a fertile soil, it is not the only one required, and as this is the only valuable property that is contained in the above preparation, it is not all-sufficient as a fertilizer. Silica is considered the frame-work of all soils, and this being the case we will consider its properties and purposes before we proceed further.

Silica is our common flint or quartz rock. It is what the potters use to glaze their earthen-ware with. It is first pulverized and then applied mixed with red-lead to the ware, after which it is subjected to heat in an oven. Now, nature makes a similar use of it in glazing the straw and chaff of wheat, rye, &c., and a soil that lacks "soluble silica," I care not how rich in other matter, the crops of grain will be "weak in the straw" and of poor yield. It is this that makes the yellow shale of chesnut timber lands or "barrens" so productive as wheat soil, when improved with lime and manure. It is this that serves to make guano or fowl's manure so valuable, as the fowls use large quantities of flint gravel to masticate their food, causing their manure to contain much silica in an impalpable state, which uniting with lime, magnesia, soda, potash, &c., form silicates.

But even phosphoric acid and "soluble silica" are not sufficient in themselves to produce a fertile soil.

The ashes of wheat contains superphosphates of soda, lime, and magnesia, but they only amount to 0.15 per cent. Now, there is a class of substances, such as albumen, gluten, &c., in wheat, called vegito-animal substances, that are composed of a great variety of chemical properties, and so various are the means required by nature to nourish and supply the almost endless varieties of the vegetable kingdom, that there is scarcely any animal, vegetable, or mineral substance, that cannot be resolved into a fertilizing agent, and the neglect of this fact, I have no doubt, led a farmer's club, not long ago, in the State of New Hampshire, to declare, that, "at least three-fourths of farm manures are allowed to go to waste;" and this manure too, is far superior to any other fertilizer, because of its varied properties.

Silica, although the most abundant, is yet the most difficult constituent of vegetable matter to obtain, from its insoluble nature, while its importance is incalculable; therefore anything that will digest it, is, of course, one of our most valuable fertilizers. Silica is an acid, and therefore only combines with alkalies, and of all these, the carbonate of lime is most useful as a fertilizer to soil, but this fact does not exclude the use of other varieties of fertilizers, but imperatively demands the application of organic matter in connection with it. HYALOID.

STONE FRUITS, CHESTNUTS, &c.—If you would raise walnut, peach, plum, horse or sweet chestnut trees from the seed, the surest way is to take the walnuts, chestnuts, peach or plum stones very soon after the fruit has been taken from the parent tree, and before they have become dry, throw them on the ground where they will be covered with grass or other haulm till spring. There they will keep moist, the frost will crack the shells, and on consulting the deposits after warm weather sets in, you will find each nut or stone opened and a tap root started to penetrate the soil. Now take the sprouted seeds and plant them where you want them to grow, just under the surface of the ground, and in a few days you will see the infant tree making its advance into the light and air. If you plant such seeds either in autumn or spring, as you would beans or corn, covering them with the earth at first, you will never see a young tree come therefrom.

COAL OIL FOR RHEUMATISM.—I wish to inquire if your readers are aware what a valuable remedy the common coal oil is in rheumatic cases? I have been using considerable of it lately, and have found almost immediate relief from it. It is surprising how supple and free from pain it will render some of our old stiff backs, suffering from all sorts of "cricks," and the weight of divers scores of years. So very valuable a remedy deserves to be more generally known, as its cheapness and abundance render it generally accessible. Care should be exercised in using at night before lamp or fire light, as it sometimes explodes.—Co. Gent.

A MAINE mechanic has procured a patent for an invention for running shafting at right angles, or at any angle, without the use of gearing or belting. The idea is entirely novel. A slide bar is placed in the angle, and motion transferred by the action of a double crank on each shaft. The machinery runs without the least noise.

WHAT State is high in the middle and round at both ends? Ohio.

SEWING MACHINES.

The Grover & Baker.—The Best in Use.

THESE Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They save labor, they save time, and they save money, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams county, where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

Albright, Reikes & Schmidt,

ESTEY'S CELEBRATED

COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR

ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivalled by any thing found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severe scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

Pacific Guano Company's

SOLUBLE

PACIFIC GUANO.

OFFICE OF GENERAL AGENCY 71 SOUTH STREET. BALTIMORE, MD.

JOHN S. REESE & CO.,
Wholesale Agents for Company.

THE very extended use of this Guano throughout the country renders it unnecessary to say more this season, than its composition and quality are precisely the same as that heretofore sold by us for the Company.

We have sold this Guano from the beginning under a regular system of rigid inspection, at an expense to the Company of many hundreds of dollars annually. This is done for the protection alike of the consumer and the Company, as it is manifest to all who understand the trade in fertilizers, that it cannot be safely conducted on any other principle. The importance and extent of the trade demands this protection.

We are prepared to exhibit Dr. A. Snowden Piggot's certificate of inspection for every cargo sold. Consumers must observe the name of JOHN S. REESE & Co. branded on the bags, none other genuine.

FOUTZ'S

CELEBRATED

Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly reinvigorate broken down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

LYON'S PERIODICAL DROPS!

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY FOR IRREGULARITIES!

I have tested these Drops in my own practice, over ten years, and do not hesitate to say, that nothing has yet been developed by medical research, that acts so powerfully, positively and harmlessly, in cases of female irregularity, as does this medicine. In all recent cases it never fails, while thousands who have been long sufferers, are indebted to it for the boon of health to-day.

Although so powerful and positive, they are perfectly harmless, and may be used at all times, except when specially forbidden in the directions.

They have been extensively employed by eminent physicians in France and England, as well as in my own practice, over ten years, and I have yet to hear of the first instance of failure. I could give you testimonials of their efficacy from all over the northern and western States, were they not in their nature private. Over 100,000 bottles have been sold the past year, and I hope and trust as many sufferers have been benefitted. I am well aware that a remedy so potent to remove all obstructions, may be used for a bad purpose, but trust that where one bottle is thus used, ten may fall into the hands of really needy sufferers.

To all who suffer from any irregularity; painful, difficult, excessive, offensive or obstructed Menstruation, Leucorrhea, or the train of diseases that follow, I would say, try a bottle of DR. LYON'S FRENCH PERIODICAL DROPS. Being a fluid preparation, their action is more direct and positive than any pills or powders. Explicit directions, bearing my fac simile, accompany each bottle.

They may be obtained of nearly every druggist in the country, or by enclosing the price to C. G. CLARK & CO., New Haven, Conn., General Agents for the United States and Canada.
